

Please do not usurp Indiana's current "Do Not Call" policy. I strongly believe that I have the right to privacy and Telemarketing is invades that right. Since Indiana instituted the "Do Not Call" policy I have been bothered much less. In fact before this change I stopped answering my phone altogether and screened all my calls with my answering machine. We should have to right to choose not to be invaded by our phones.